THE BODY SHOP

Wouldn't it be nice to shop and save the planet at the same time? Well, it's easy – just buy things from The Body Shop.

The Body Shop is a chain of shops selling beauty products that don't harm the environment, and there are more than 1,800 stores in 49 countries. The Body Shop has got everything for your skin, hair and body. It sells make-up, perfume and accessories, too. It uses natural ingredients from fruit and plants to make the things it sells, such as banana shampoo and pineapple face wash.

The Body Shop offers much more, though. It buys the plants and fruit it needs from poor countries, so it helps them to earn money and gives people jobs. It doesn't cost a lot of money to shop there. Prices start from just 80p.

So, why not look after the planet as well as your body? Visit the Body Shop and try one or two of the hundreds of products on offer.
